

Chapter 4

Page 78: Have you ever let your emotions dictate your faith?

Page 78: Have you ever questioned if God was there and listening to you?

Page 80: Have you been “compelled” by God’s love and craved to be more like Him? “When we spend more of our time searching for assurance than we do acting out of belief, we are chasing God.” Page 85

Page 86: Have you ever chased God through “a feeling” rather than obedience?

Page 88: Do you strive for answers instead of relying on the power of obedience? “Our actions should always come from what we know is true, not what we are struggling to fully embrace in that truth.” Page 89

“Confess your belief and then act of that determination.”
